CLASS INFORMATION

- Location: Class meets each day in the _____. Please arrive on time for both drop off and pickup.
- USF Production: A ticket to a Show is provided for all registered students. This production may change due to director approval
 - All attendees must be mature enough to sit in their own seat for a 2.5-hour public performance in the Engelstad Theatre.
 - Some parents may be invited to chaperone the class at the performance.
- Attendance: Shakespeare's Playmakers is a fast-paced class. Because it is only a two-week course it is important that you attend as many days as possible.
 - Students should dress appropriately to move, dance, and run comfortably. We recommend that you wear closed-toed shoes.
 - Once scripts have been distributed please bring them each day.
- Final Performance: If you will not be here on Saturday, the day of the performance, please let us know within the first two days of class. This way, we will be able to plan for the performance and accommodate your needs.
 - Students should wear their Playmaker's T-Shirt for the performance with either a black or dark jean bottom.
- No food please: Bottled water is highly encouraged.
- Homework: Plan on rehearsing on your own after class. The faster the students get memorized, the more we can play!
- Drop off/Pick up: We suggest dropping students off along 300 W, which is located just east of the General Classrooms building. We will gather the kids in the big lawn outside the building for pick-up.
- Contact: Please feel free to call us at 435-865-8333 or email summerclasses@bard.org if you have any questions or concerns.
